

Capital Dynamics Named 2020 Private Equity Manager of the Year by Pension Bridge
More than Three Decades of Excellence in Private Assets

NEW YORK – October 5th, 2020: Capital Dynamics, an independent global private asset management firm, today announced that its Private Equity team was named the ‘2020 Private Equity Manager of the Year’ by Pension Bridge’s Institutional Asset Management Award series.

Pension Bridge’s Institutional Asset Management Awards recognize and reward institutional asset managers for both performance and excellence across various strategies. Judging by an esteemed panel of institutional investors and consultants was based on both performance and qualitative elements, such as delivering results for clients and business partners, and incorporating ESG/RI initiatives across our private equity strategies and the wider business. Awards are heavily researched by Pension Bridge’s advisory board and market participants to ensure the metrics and weightings are reflective of investment decisions being made by CIOs.

“This prominent award celebrates a prosperous year for our Private Equity team, and showcases the commitment and trust built with our valued partners across our private equity primaries, secondaries and co-investment strategies,” said Andrew Bernstein, Senior Managing Director and Head of Private Equity at Capital Dynamics. “I’d like to thank our investors and industry partners for their continued support, as well as Pension Bridge and its advisory board who chose us among a distinguished group of nominees.”

Capital Dynamics has been investing in global mid-market private equity for over thirty years, focusing on middle-market companies that help drive local and global economic growth and job creation.
